Higashino Tokichi Orimono Co., Ltd. / Wet weft Habutae

|  |   |
|--|---|
| Company Name                                   | Higashino Tokichi Orimono Co., Ltd.   |
| Main Products                                  | Silk textiles   |
| Key Selling Point                              | Traditional silk textiles from Fukui Prefecture   |
| Product / Technology Name                      | Wet weft Habutae  |
| Picture  |    |
| Product / Technology Description for Customers | Nureyoko Habutae is a traditional silk textile woven by pairing two fine, untwisted silk threads for the warp and weaving with moistened weft threads. This technique tightens the weave, resulting in a fabric that is lightweight, supple, and durable, with a smooth, silky texture and a beautiful, lustrous sheen. Because the fabric is prone to uneven weaving when it dries, this method is uniquely suited to the Hokuriku region, where high humidity is maintained throughout the year. Today, Nureyoko Habutae is mainly used for kimono linings. |
